

Hazing Report

Cedarville University is committed to the values of Love for God, Love for Others, Integrity in Conduct, and Excellence in Effort. Consistent with these values, the University takes seriously the cultivation of a community that fosters social connections that will result in the growth of our students. Therefore, reports of hazing are promptly investigated and addressed. Ohio Law requires universities to provide a report of hazing violations for the past five years. This report is updated bi-annually.
